

SAINT PAUL'S FAMILIES

125 Autographs to Celebrate 125 Years

This past Sunday, January 29th, our catechesis aged children received their own St. Paul's autograph book in celebration of St. Paul's 125th anniversary. After Fr. Polk blessed their autograph books, the children were encouraged to collect 125 adult parishioners over the next few months.

Each page of the book has different questions. How long have you been attending St. Paul's? What do you think delights God? Who is one dear friend you have made at St. Paul's? After introducing themselves and asking a question, the children ask the parishioner to sign their book. Meeting 125 new church friends is a great way that our children can celebrate our 125th year together. Please encourage your child(ren) to mix and mingle with the older generations of St. Paul's, so that they can learn more about St. Paul's special history and their place in it. Autograph books are available in the catechesis atriums if your child did not receive one - Colin+
