

SAINT PAUL'S FAMILIES

Children's Church

In a few weeks every family with a child in Children's Church will be receiving a "Children's Prayer Book" based on our Sunday morning Children's Church liturgy. In addition, each child will have copy that remains in Children's Church which they will be able to decorate. Their prayer book will include our prayers, words to songs, and other items we use to worship. With our books we will be able to offer more opportunities for our children to participate in Children's Church. An example is that those children who can read and wish to do so now lead our "Prayers of the People" and also read a Scripture passage every week from a lectern near the altar.

We welcome all the children from age 9 to 12 to assist us in a variety of ways in Children's Church. Their presence is most helpful and hopefully meaningful for them. Children's church will not meet on December 13th, the day of the annual meeting or December 20th, the day of the Christmas Pageant. We will meet the rest of December. - Jerry Redditt

Liturgical Colors

Early in the atrium year, we offer the children a presentation titled "The Liturgical Colors." This presentation names and identifies the colors associated with the Liturgical Year. It prepares the child for further work with the Liturgical Year and to participate more fully at Liturgy. The colors are:

White - During the Feast (Christmas and Easter)

Purple - Before the Feast (Advent and Lent)

Green - After the Feasts (Ordinary Time)

Red - Feast of the Holy Spirit (Pentecost)

Liturgical Calendar

The Liturgical Calendar is presented to the children in the form of a circular wood puzzle.

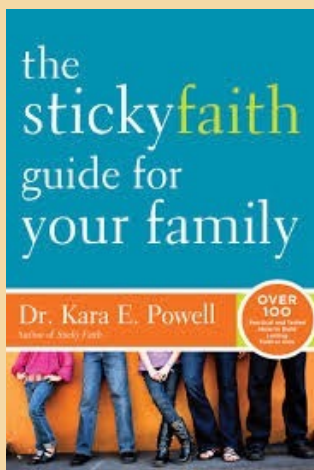

We also offer the children a liturgical calendar puzzle that orients them to the liturgical year through pieces representing the Sundays of the year in the appropriate liturgical colors. Three pieces, like hands on a clock, indicate the three principal feasts of Christmas, Easter and Pentecost. Our life in the atrium seeks to be in sync with the life of the Church. The presentations we give in the atrium will be offered, as much as possible, in conjunction with the liturgical time in the Church.
